

The Pacific Northwest Aquatic Monitoring Partnership and StreamNet invite you to the:

2026 Emerging Technologies Information Sessions (ETIS)

Insight Below the Surface: Advancing Ecological Monitoring Through Innovative Tools and Data Driven Decisions

Scan the QR Code to Register for the 2026 Emerging Technologies Information Sessions!

Monitoring professionals, project managers, data collectors, and data managers; join us at the 2026 Emerging Technologies Information Sessions meeting and learn about the latest technologies and innovative techniques in ecological monitoring. Come out to the Pacific Northwest and network with other monitoring professionals implementing tech in new ways.

Registration Fee: Registration for this event is set at $175

Registration Includes:

- Workshop: Genetics 101 for Fisheries Professional
- Field trip to the Columbia River Inter-Tribal Fish Commission's Mobile Genetics Lab
- Presentations from colleagues across the United States and Canada
- Poster Session and Exhibitor Spotlight with complimentary appetizers and no-host bar
- Continental breakfasts, complimentary lunch, coffee and snack breaks

When: October 26th, 2026 - October 28th, 2026

Where: Skamania Lodge, Stevenson, Washington, USA

- Or, virtually – if attendance in-person is not a possibility.

Travel: Stevenson, Washington is located in the Columbia River Gorge approximately an hour east of the nearest major airport in Portland, OR.

Lodging: There is a first come/first serve room block at the GSA Rate of $155/night plus taxes and fees at Skamania Lodge.

- Other lodging is also available in Stevenson, WA as well as in neighboring towns – Cascade Locks, OR - Hood River OR – White Salmon, WA

Info about the hotel block can be found at: <https://pnamp.org/projects/2026-etis/>

Sponsors:

Interested in being an exhibitor or sponsor? Contact Nancy Leonard: nleonard@psmfc.org